Overview

Section 1. Purpose. —

Executive Order (EO) No. 2, otherwise known as the Freedom of Information (FOI) EO issued on 23 July 2016, seeks to operationalize the Constitutional provisions on full public disclosure of all State transactions involving public interests (Section 28, Article II) and the right of the people to information on matters of public concern (Section 7, Article III). Pursuant to and in compliance with the foregoing mandate of the FOI EO, the People's FOI Manual for the Bureau of Internal Revenue was formulated in 2017.

Since then, the Bureau of Internal Revenue (Bureau) has continued to improve and update its FOI Manual in order to further better serve the public. Thus, the Bureau hereby submits this Revised People's FOI Manual (Manual).

The purpose of this Manual is to guide and assist the public in the processes and procedures involved in the requests for information pursuant to EO No. 2. It likewise sets out the rules, procedures and guidelines to be followed by the officials and employees of the offices under the Bureau. The rules, procedures and guidelines provided for in this Manual, having been issued pursuant to EO No. 2, serve as an exception to Revenue Memorandum Order (RMO) No. 11-2013 dated April 23, 2013.

Section 2. Structure. —

This Manual shall set out the rules and procedures to be followed by the Bureau when a request for access to information is received. Section 3. Coverage. —

This Manual shall cover all requests for information directed, filed or submitted to the offices under the Bureau pursuant to EO No. 2.

Thus, they shall be treated as separate requests. The fifteen (15) day period per separate request will commence the day after receipt by the FROs concerned. The requesting party shall be informed of such fact.
- 14.3. Requested information is in the custody of another office within the Bureau. If the requested information is in the custody of another office within the Bureau, the FRO shall transfer the request to said office through the most expeditious manner. If the FRO, in good faith, erroneously referred the request to the wrong government agency, the latter shall immediately notify the former as well as the requesting party, that the information requested is not available in their agency. The government agency, to whom the request was referred under the First Referral may subsequently refer the request to another government agency under the procedure set forth in the first paragraph of this subsection. This shall be considered as the "Second Referral" and another fresh period shall apply. Referrals shall only be limited to two (2) subsequent transfers of request. A written or email acknowledgement of the referral shall be made by the FRO of the government agency where it was referred. The requesting party shall be notified of the referral and must be provided with the reason or rationale thereof, and contact details of the government office where the request was referred.⁶

Frequent or overlapping requests, which occur when a requesting party submits a correspondence involving the same issue frequently, or submits the same request over a period of time before the office can have the opportunity to address the earlier request. However, there is no frequent or overlapping request when the information that was previously released has been updated or has already changed.

The government office shall not be required to act upon an unreasonable subsequent identical or substantially similar request from the same requesting party whose request has already been previously granted or denied by the same government office;

- b. Personal grudges, which occur when the requesting party submits a correspondence on a particular government official or employee against whom he/she has some personal enmity; or the said request is made to express hatred to a particular official or employee;
- c. Unfounded accusations, which occur when the request makes completely unsubstantiated accusations against the public authority or specific employees;

- e. Reprocessed data, which means requests for information that will require the agency to re-process the data. Re-processed data means that the data was already proactively disclosed (i.e. already posted in the BIR website) or the data was requested and was previously disclosed.

Premature requests or requests that are yet to be processed by the agency – means information which will soon be published, or the disclosure of which would be premature in relation to a planned announcement or publication; or

- f. All other requests that are meant to harass, embarrass or put into actual or imminent danger the life or property of the agency, its officials or employees.⁹

14.8. The FRO may deny the request based on the following grounds¹¹:

- a. The form of the request is incomplete (e.g. no purpose or purpose lacks specificity, incomplete name, contact number or address, lacks valid proof of identification / authorization / board resolution / corporate secretary's certificate, as the case may be);
- b. The requesting party made material misrepresentations in his request;
- c. The Bureau does not have custody of the information requested and is not known to be in the custody of another agency under the Executive Branch¹²; and
- d. The request is a vexatious FOI request. If the request is denied on this basis, the FRO shall indicate why the FOI request is deemed vexatious (i.e. subsequent identical or substantially similar request from the same requesting party whose request has already been previously granted or denied, reprocessed data as it is already posted in the website, etc.)¹³
- e. The request falls outside the scope of the FOI program (i.e. the request is a front-line/government service of the agency, etc.)¹⁴

¹⁴ See Section 14.7 of this Manual.

14.9. Clarification. If the FRO needs further details to identify or locate the information, the FRO shall seek clarification¹⁵ from the requesting party. Upon the receipt of the required clarification from the requesting party, a fresh 15 working day period shall commence.

Section 15. Transmittal of Request by the FRO to FDM. —

Upon approval of a request for information, the FRO shall transmit the request to the FDM. The copy of such request shall be transmitted to the corresponding FDM within one (1) day from receipt of the written request. Section 16. Role of FDM in Processing the Request. —

- 16.1. Upon receipt of the request for information from the FRO, the FDM shall assess and clarify the request if necessary. He or she shall make necessary steps to locate and retrieve the information requested. The FDM shall ensure that the complete information requested be submitted to the FRO within ten (10) days upon receipt of such request unless the FDM seeks further clarification, in which case, the ten (10) days shall commence from receipt of the clarification from the FRO.
- 16.2. The FRO shall note the date and time of receipt of the information from the FDM.
- 16.3.
